Avraam Pekris, CEO and founder of Huminance Insurance Agents and Consultants, excels as a leading professional and leader in the insurance sector. A London School of Economics graduate with a First Class Honors degree in Actuarial Science, he continued his professional studies in actuarial science. In 2016, he earned an MBA from the Cyprus International Institute of Management, achieving top student honors.

His career is marked by his successful tenure as General Manager of Eurolife until July 2023, achieving significant milestones. His international career includes roles in the UK with the Public Sector Actuaries Department, Buck Consultants, and Aon Associates.

Beyond corporate leadership, as Vice President of the Cyprus Association of Insurance Companies, Avraam played a vital role in promoting significant industry reforms. He is also the author of the book "Beyond the Policy: The Secrets to Insurance Mastery"

Throughout his career, Avraam has been recognized for his exceptional skills and contributions to the insurance industry, earning distinctions such as "Insurance CEO of the Year 2023" from the Global and Banking Finance Awards. His journey uniquely combines analytical ability, strategic insight, and a commitment to growth and excellence in the insurance sector.

Currently his company collaborates exclusively with Universal Life where as an agency manager he leads a team of more than 20 insurance advisors.
